WHAT IS ELY GREENSTONE PUBLIC ART DOING FOR THE AREA THIS SUMMER?

The Ely Arts & Heritage Center at the Pioneer Mine Complex became closer to reality earlier this year when the City of Ely, owners of the historic site, agreed to lease the complex to Ely Greenstone Public Art.

The Shaft House across from Grand Ely Lodge on Pioneer Road will be used to present the history of mining in the area with photographs and memorabilia.

The Miners Dry building at 105 Miners Lake Landing will host art exhibits, Children's Art Camp, the Art Show & Sale. Additional programs are being developed.

To be placed on Greenstone's artist list, send complete name, address, phone and email to: Ely Greenstone Public Art, 2647 Van Vac Road, Ely MN 55731 or email: thepub@elyecho.com or art@elygreenstone.org.

JURIED ART SHOW SETUP:

All art must have identifying labels attached to the back of each piece, (or on the bottom of a 3D), indicating your name and the title of the piece. All 2D art must be DRY and ready to hang. Wire & screws must be appropriately attached to the back.

Matted artwork must be framed or shrink-wrapped, with hanging apparatus attached.

Artists must deliver their work to Pioneer Mine, Miners Dry building or make special arrangements with Greenstone.

Ely Greenstone sets up all displays. Every effort will be made to give each piece of art its own space.

All artwork is to remain on display until the end of the show.

CLOSING:

It is the responsibility of the artist to make arrangements for the removal of art on Sunday, July 31 between 3 and 4 p.m.

SALES:

Ely Greenstone will handle all sales transactions. 80% of the selling price will be paid to the artist within 10 days of the show.

If a credit card is used for payment, a 3% fee will be deducted for processing the sale

OTHER:

All artwork will be handled with the greatest of care.

Ely Greenstone and its volunteers are not responsible for any loss or damage.

All pieces submitted will be juried and the judges decisions will be final. The applicant understands that none, one or more pieces may be chosen.

Ely Greenstone Public Art, a federally recognized charity, uses its funds for educational art programs.

Artists must deliver their work to Miners Dry on Thurs., July 21, 6-8 p.m. or Friday, July 22, before noon and must pick up their work between 3 and 4 p.m. on Sunday, July 31.
